See What a Morning!

Keith Getty, Stuart Townend

See, what a morning, gloriously bright
With the dawning of hope in Jerusalem
Folded the grave-clothes, tomb filled with light
As the angels announce, "Christ is risen!"

See God's salvation plan
Wrought in love, borne in pain, paid in sacrifice
Fulfilled in Christ, the Man
For He lives, Christ is risen from the dead!

See Mary weeping, "Where is He laid?"
As in sorrow, she turns from the empty tomb
Hears a voice speaking, calling her name
It's the Master, the Lord raised to life again!

This voice that spans the years
Speaking life, stirring hope, bringing peace to us
Will sound 'til He appears
For He lives, Christ is risen from the dead!

One with the Father, Ancient of Days
Through the Spirit who clothes faith with certainty
Honor and blessing, glory and praise
To the King crowned with pow'r and authority!

And we are raised with Him
Death is dead, love has won, Christ has conquered
And we shall reign with Him
For He lives, Christ is risen from the dead!

And we are raised with Him
Death is dead, love has won, Christ has conquered
And we shall reign with Him
For He lives, Christ is risen from the dead!

HE LIVES!

How to Prepare for Communion

Of course, we should begin each day in reflection, confession, and repentance. But especially when we come to the Lord's Table, it is a time to "do business with God." How do we prepare ourselves for communion?

1. If possible, take some time before the communion service, at home or arriving at church early. Don't expect others to do this preparation for you. Fellowshiping with others at church is good, but not if it distracts you from that heart-preparation necessary so that you can worship God aright.
2. Examine yourself to see if you are in sin, either a known sin or perhaps something you are unaware of. This means to pause to consider your life. How are you treating the people close to you? How are you treating those in the congregation? With indifference? With selfishness? With disrespect?
3. Confess any sins, known sin or sins that God brings to mind as you are examining yourself.
4. Repent of these sins and resolve to take immediate steps to correct your actions or make amends, if you are able.
5. Accept God's forgiveness. This time of self-reflection and repentance is not to give Satan permission to continually beat you up over sins of the past. Accept and believe in God's promises of forgiveness. We don't look backward -- our sins have been forgiven. We look forward to living with God the day ahead of us.

Prayer

Father, forgive me for the times that I've come to the Table without preparing my heart to commune with you. Help me and my brothers and sisters to come to you ready to give worship and receive your blessings of the Word and the refreshing Holy Spirit. We love you, but we are weak; help us. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.
